

The
Anglo-Thai Society
Educational Awards for Excellence 2017
Supported by H.E. The Ambassador of Thailand

The Anglo-Thai Society is delighted to present the Educational Awards for Excellence 2017 to Thai students studying in the UK. Its aim is to recognise the exceptional academic achievements of Thai post-graduate scholars in the UK. The ATS would like to invite all those who feel they might qualify for an award to apply as detailed below:

The Anglo-Thai Society Educational Awards for Excellence in

1. Science
2. Medical Science
3. Engineering and Technology
4. Humanities and Social Science
5. Environment
6. Law
7. Finance
8. The Arts, including Architecture, Design and Music
9. Award for a non-Thai national at a UK university [research focussed on Thailand]

Criteria for the Awards:

The Annual Awards are for Thai PhD students in the in the UK who have a record of outstanding performance during their time of study here. The judges will consist of a panel of distinguished academics who will take into consideration the contribution this research makes to the Thai nation and the world in general.

To be considered for the shortlist, candidates should submit the following:

- Brief CV plus photograph.
- Completed Application Form
- A copy of your passport
- Letter of support from your academic supervisor or tutor.
- A Statement of Achievement with an abstract of your thesis (e.g. publications, conferences and other outstanding work/experience during the last 3 years of research in the UK). No more than 2 A4 pages
- Candidates are expected to attend the ceremony in November if they are Award recipients
[Please refer to Terms and Conditions on page 2]

Contact:

Candidates should send their applications by email, with all the necessary documents by email to:
education@anglothaisociety.org.

Please note that the strict deadline for applications is 30 June 2017. The winners will be announced by 12 October 2017

Nature of the Awards:

These are essentially honorary awards. The winner of each category will receive a plaque engraved with their name and a cheque for £300 donated by generous sponsors of the scheme, including H.E. the Ambassador of Thailand. Other prizes and diplomas will also be awarded for recognition in each field.

The Awards Ceremony & Reception will be held at The Oriental Club, Stratford Place, London, W1C 1ES [opposite Bond Street Underground Station] on Friday 17 November 2017, from 6.30 to 8.30 pm.

The winning candidates will be expected to display their work at the Reception and speak about their research.

Application Form

Candidates should send their applications, with all the necessary documents by email to education@anglothaisociety.org by 30th June 2017

Name (as on passport):

Name in Thai:

Subject Category:

Degree:

Year of Study:

Research Topic:

UK University:

Department:

Sponsorships/Scholarships:

Supervisor name and email address:

Address in UK:

UK mobile:

Work email:

Personal email:

Address in Thailand:

Thai mobile:

Proposed sphere of work in Thailand after PhD:

Terms and conditions: By entering the Awards you confirm that are able to attend the Ceremony. ATS are unable to subsidise transport or accommodation. ATS are authorized to send your contact details and photo to relevant third parties including Award sponsors and organisers of Alumni meetings in Thailand. ATS to communicate with you regarding future events and to provide updates on your progress / news for our website as sponsors and members follow your work with interest.

I agree to the above terms and conditions.

Name:

Signature:

Date: